Boys Town

Tuesday, February 8th,
2:00 PM

Sign up for this classic 1938 Oscar-winning film starring Spencer Tracy and Mickey Rooney. Based on the true-life inspirational story about Father Flanagan who started the Boys Town orphanage in Nebraska for delinquent boys. Watch how Father Flanagan gives love and hope to orphan boys left behind! Refreshments will be served. Run time: 96 minutes. Registration required.

The Good, The Bad and the Ugly

Date TBD

In conjunction with this month's Breeze article on local actor Lee Van Cleef, the Raritan Library will be showing one of the most influential westerns of all time. Born and raised in Somerville, NJ, Van Cleef teams up with Clint Eastwood and Eli Wallach in this epic Western film.

Refreshment will be served. Run time: 161 minutes. Registration is required.

For the month of January and possibly February, some of our programs may be postponed or go virtual due to the COVID-19 surge. Please check the website for updated information.
